

SARAH

Three Northeast Arkansas siblings, Sarah, 12, Johnny, 9, and Mark, 5, come home from school one day and find their stepfather forcing their mother to move away with him to St. Louis. When the kids are placed in the home of an abusive local minister, they run away, hoping to find their mother. Soon caught, Sarah is returned to the home of the abusive preacher while her brothers are placed in a different home.

When fate intervenes, and their stepfather is killed in an industrial accident, the kids are reunited with their mother. Soon, Sarah's abuse is discovered, and the preacher is tried but acquitted. Feeling guilty for helping her husband escape punishment, the minister's unstable wife resolves the problem, and Sarah rebuilds her family.

AUTHOR
CARL P. "BUSTER" HITT

TITLE
SARAH

ISBN 9781662878367

PRICE
$17.99

PUBLICATION DATE:
06/26/2023

GENRE
FICTION - LITERARY FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS - ABUSE - GENERAL
FICTION - WOMEN

PAGE COUNT
292

TRIM
5.5 x 8.5

BINDING
PERFECT BOUND

PUBLISHER
MILL CITY PRESS

Available through retailers like Amazon, ingrambook.com, and many major wholesalers

Fold Here

*Place
Stamp
Here*

Fold Here